EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

For Catalogue, apply to
REV. C. B. RIDDICK, President,

RE-ORGANIZED, RE-FITTED, AND RE-FURNISHED.

IF YOU WISH TO EDUCATE YOUR DAUGHTERS at an excellent school, conducted by competent Teachers, in a healthy quiet place, amid sublime mountain scenery, and at astonishingly low rates, send them, on or before the 3rd of February, 1868, to the above Institution. It bids fair to enjoy a career of unprecedented success and usefulness.

Board and Tuition for twenty weeks, $77.00.

Apply for a Circular to

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

The "so-called" Convention has perfected but little of its business, yet enough has been done to enable the public to judge of the real character of the so called Constitution it will draft. It is important that the people shall fully understand its provisions and its bearing upon the future of the State, in order to an intelligent vote upon it.

Let it be borne in mind, that the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, under which this Convention meets, and from which it derives all its powers, only demand of the Convention that the new Constitution shall admit negro suffrage and the adoption of the Howard amendment by the Legislature.—The Congress, by its Acts, demands for the black race civil rights and suffrage, but it certainly does not require all political franchises for them and social position with the whites. All these the new Constitution will claim for the negro race. Let us see what it has already done, looking to this result:

1. The new Bill of Rights will affirm that all men, without distinction of color or condition, are entitled to equality of rights, for the reason, as it is affirmed, that "all men were created equal." That such a position is a fallacy, contradicted by all experience, is palpable to every intelligent mind.

2. The new Constitution will place every negro and white man in the State, 21 years of age, in perfect equality, not only as to the right of voting, but as to every other franchise.

3. It will totally discard that essential republican principle, that property has a claim to representation, or a right of protection or guarantee, in the property holding qualification of the representative or public officer.

4. It will create new offices; besides a Governor, a Secretary of State, a Public Treasurer, and a Comptroller or Auditor, it will provide for a Lieutenant Governor, a Superintendent of Public Instruction and a Superintendent of Public Works, all to be elected by the people for a term of four years, —and negroes will be eligible to all of these offices, no property or educational qualification being required of them.

5. It will vastly increase the expense of our Judicial system. It will provide for three or five Supreme Court Judges, as the Legislature may determine, ten Superior Court Judges instead of eight, a Judge for each County in the State, and perhaps for three Equity Judges, all to be elected by the people, requiring no other qualification, we presume, than that the candidate for a Judgeship shall have been licensed to practice law. Negroes, therefore, will be as eligible to Judgeships as white men. Of course, in a number of Counties, the negroes can elect Judges of their own color, if they choose.

6. Under the new Constitution negroes will be eligible to both branches of the Legislature and to either branch of Congress.

7. Negroes will also constitute a portion of the State militia and will be eligible to office in the militia, and the Legislature may allow the regiments to be composed alike of black and white men, and blacks to be officers over white men.

8. Negroes will be admitted to the jury box alike with white men, and intermarriage will be allowed between blacks and whites.

9. The question of suffrage has not been determined, except as to allowing every negro, 21 years of age, to vote. But the question of disfranchising white men has not been settled. We believe that a disfranchising clause will be inserted.

10. The question of public education has not yet been publicly discussed and settled, but it is understood that the public schools and the University will be opened alike to negroes and whites, both as teachers and pupils.

11. Finally, the Convention will require equal rights and privileges for the negroes in public Conveyances, Railroads, &c., &c.

We have presented, in the foregoing, what we believe will be the general features of the new Constitution. Some of its provisions will be less offensive, but its offensive features will be sufficiently so, to demand of every white man, and every colored man who desires the future peace and welfare of the State and people, to vote against it.

The people will be told that its adoption will be essential to Union. But if is a sufficient answer to such a claim, that the Congress has not required such a Constitution as the Convention will give us, in order to restoration. We are for the Union, under such a State Constitution as the Convention proposes to give us, will destroy all concord and harmony among ourselves, and of course alienate one party or the other from the National government.

WASHINGTON rumors state that Sherman a Bill to admit Alabama, despite the defeat of the Constitution, will not succeed by a strict party vote,—possibly not by the two thirds, which will be necessary to over ride the certain Executive veto. Several Senators have announced their intention to oppose it, and Butler says that he will do all he can to defeat it in the House.

CANVASSERS.—The following recommendations, for the county of Camden, have been made to the Executive Committee, and are hereby announced, viz:

Camden.—Col. D. D. Ferebee, Dr. Mallier, C. G. Lake, W. B. Ferebee and Willis Sanderlin.

SOCIAL EQUALITY.—We presume that there is not a city, town or village, in a single Northern State, in which negroes would be allowed, at a public entertainment of any character, to mingle indiscriminately, on the same floor, with white people. There is not one where the attempt on the part of negroes, to sit side by side, on terms of perfect equality, with the wives and daughters of white men, would not excite a storm of indignation that would soon hustle the former into the streets. But what would be considered an atrocious insult, even in New England, is claimed to be well enough to be inflicted upon the white people,—men and women—of the South.

The spectacle which was presented in the so-called Convention, on Saturday last, when the application was made, on behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association, for the use of the Commons Hall, was one which possesses an extraordinary significance and should arrest the attention of every white man in North Carolina. It exhibited, in a more emphatic manner than has heretofore occurred, the determination of the mongrel party to force, so far as they can do so, social, as well as political, equality between the races. Even negroes have heretofore disclaimed any such aspirations, and yet it is note-worthy that, upon this occasion, two of them were the first to object to the use of the Hall, unless negro men and women should be permitted to sit indiscriminately among white people; and in this insolent demand they were backed, openly, by two or three misnamed white men—Yankee Radicals—who knew very well that a similar claim, in the States from which they hail, would subject them to no gentle treatment. So complete is the influence which these imported Radicals have obtained over the native dupes, that if the application had been pressed, there is but little doubt that it would have been refused, upon the ground that the wives, sisters and daughters of white men were unwilling to sit 'cheek by jowl' with negresses and "buck negroes!"

This is the longest and most alarming stride yet made by Radicalism in North Carolina. The next thing will be the direct incorporation of social equality, as a leading plank, in its platform. These men, in their anxiety to use the negro vote, for obtaining the offices for themselves, will ignore and repudiate every claim of the race and color to which it was once erroneously thought they belonged.

E. A. POLLARD, GEN. D. H. HILL.—We of this generation, for obvious reasons, do not expect to see an adequate and just history of the late war, and, for the same reasons, if such a history were produced, we should not publicly recognize or receive it.

But we do expect, and have a right to demand, that whoever attempts to give an account of contemporaneous events and characters, shall at least give the statistical truth,—the facts and figures,—which may serve as material for history hereafter.

He who undertakes to forestall the judgment of posterity, to write history in the interest of a party, or section, or State, or for the glorification of individual favorites, —what shall we say of him! To let his book die were merciful, and more than he has a right to expect of the public.

Mr. E. A. Pollard, to mention no others, is much indebted to North Carolina for the reception given to his late work entitled "The Lost Cause," in that so little notice has been taken of it. Nobody expects the extravaganzas and diatribes of the old Richmond Examiner to be mistaken for history.

The peculiar position which North Carolina occupied in relation to the late struggle was not appreciated at the time, nor indeed is it now. She got little credit for her heroic self sacrifice, even among and by some of those for whom it was made. She can afford to wait, however, and she does wait, calmly; although she had a right to expect justice at least at the hands of Virginia historians.

North Carolina plays a very secondary part (or rather scarcely any at all) in Mr. Pollard's history, and no one would guess that he was aware of the remarkable fact that the graves of her dead are more numerous on all the great battle-fields of Va., (Gettysburg and Sharpsburg included) than those of, perhaps, any other State.

But Mr. Pollard (and others) must not expect the like forbearance on the part of individuals, who, having the misfortune to hail from N. C., are systematically ignored or misrepresented in his pretentious and one-eyed travesty of history.

If Mr. Pollard is incapable, from narrowness, or prejudice, or from whatever cause, of doing justice to North Carolina and her heroes, it is some satisfaction to know that some of the latter are quite capable of doing justice to Mr. Pollard. Whoever wishes to see a liberal instalment thereof meted out to him in good style and measure, let us commend him to Gen. Hill, in the February number of The Land We Lose, anent the subject of the "Lost Dispatch." The effectiveness of the General's defence is not a little enhanced by the admirable good temper displayed under such provocation as might have excused, if not justified, a degree of asperity.

It will be seen that he does not rest satisfied with repelling and refuting, in the most triumphant and complete manner, the charge which the historian lays against him, but "carries the war into Africa" in true Scipionic style. And in doing so, he lets in the day light upon some of the peculiar characteristics of this and other histories, which have emanated from the same point of the compass.

However true it may be that this fierce historian, whose "voice was still for war, was never under fire" during the late contest of arms, he is hardly obnoxious any longer to that charge after this broadside.

On the whole, Mr. P's. production is likely to find its level very soon among the lost books, and the public is under obligations to Gen. Hill for thus helping it on its "winged way" towards so desirable a consummation.

LENT.—Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, falls this year upon the 26th. inst.

THE ALBERT NYANZA, &C.

No. 3.

I closed the last extracts with the question, asked by the author, "Why was the negro first introduced into our (the English) colonies, and to America?"

I suppose this question has pressed itself on the attention of thousands of intelligent inquirers after truth, and I further suppose that nearly every intelligent person, in endeavoring to answer it, has come to the same conclusions. But let us see how this hardly explored—after living five years in the heart of Africa, and after extensive travels into many portions of the world where African slavery exists—answers the question.

"Why was the negro introduced into our colonies, and to America?"

"The Sun is the great arbitrator between the white and the black man. There are productions necessary to civilized countries, that can alone be cultivated in tropical climates, where the white man cannot live if exposed to the sun. Thus, such fertile countries as the West Indies and portions of America being without a native population, the negro was originally imported as a slave to fulfil the conditions of a laborer. In his own country he was a wild savage, and enslaved his brother man; he thus became a victim to his own system; to the institution of slavery which is indigenous to the soil of Africa and that has not been taught to the Africans by the white man, as is currently reported, but that has ever been the peculiar characteristic of African tribes.

In his state of slavery the negro was compelled to work, and, through his labor, every country prospered where he had been introduced. He was suddenly freed, and from that moment he refused to work, and instead of being a useful member of society, he not only became a useless burden to the community, but a plotter and intriguer, imbued with a deadly hatred to the white men who had generously declared him to be free.

Now, as 'the negro was originally imported as a laborer, but now refuses to labor, it is self evident that he is a lamentable failure. Either he must be compelled to work, by some stringent law against vagrancy, or those beautiful countries, that prospered under the conditions of negro forced industry, must yield to ruin, under negro freedom and idle independence. For an example of the results, look to St. Domingo." (And whilst reading what has been written, who does not look to all the most fertile portions of the Southern States? But Baker was writing for English readers, and wrote all he has said on this subject long before he could have known that slavery had been abolished in this country.)

"Under peculiar guidance, and subject to a certain restraint, the negro may be an important and most useful being; but if treated as an Englishman, he will affect the vices but none of the virtues of civilization, and his natural good qualities will be lost in his attempts to become a "white man."

Beeswax a non moutons noirs. It was something amusing to watch the change that took place in a slave that had been civilized (?) by the slave traders. Among their parties, there were many blacks who had been captured, and who enjoyed the life of slave hunting—nothing appeared so easy as to become professional in cattle razzias and kidnapping human beings, and the first act of a slave was to procure a slave for himself! All the best slave hunters, and the boldest and most energetic scoundrels, were the negroes who had, at a time, themselves been kidnapped. These fellows aped a great and ridiculous importance. On the march they would seldom condescend to carry their own gun;—a little slave boy invariably attended to his master, keeping close to his heels, and trotting along on foot during a long march, carrying a musket much larger than himself;—a woman generally carried a basket with a cooking pot, and a gourd of water and provisions, while a hired native carried the soldier's change of clothing and ox hides upon which he slept. Thus the men who had been kidnapped became the kidnappers, and the slave became the master, the only difference between him and the Arab being an absurd notion of his own dignity."

This will do for the present paper. And what does all this prove? some one may ask. It proves that the negro is an inferior species of the race, who can thrive only under the direct influence of the white men,—his superior in genius and industry. Six thousand years have revolved, and yet we find the negro as ignorant as he ever was in his primitive, native Africa; although thousands of them have been brought up in the Courts of Asia; hundreds have been educated in the seminaries of Christian princes in Europe; and in the United States have been fostered and instructed, until they reached as high a position as they ever did or ever will reach, from which they are now retrograding and sinking into the most deplorable state of ignorance and barbarism. And all history, from the earliest up to the present moment, exhibits them as only imitative beings, and affords but few examples, even when high in rank and power, of their genius ever rising above the lowest cunning and duplicity.

D. L.

QUITE A COINCIDENCE.—During the reading of Dickens, on Tuesday night, at Carroll Hall, a coincidence occurred there that turned quite a titter, if not a laugh, on Gen. Butler. It occurred during the reading or description of "Bob Sawyer's Party at his Lodgings," from Pickwick, in the quarrel scene between Noddy and Gunter. The following in the reading:

"I request that you'll favor me with your card," said Mr. Noddy.

"Why not, sir?" inquired Mr. Noddy.

"Because you'll stick it up over your chimney piece, and delude your visitors into the false belief that a gentleman has been to see you, sir," replied Mr. Gunter.

"Sir, a friend of mine shall wait on you in the morning," said Mr. Noddy.

"Sir, I'm very much obliged to you for the caution, and I'll leave particular directions with the servant to look up the spoons," replied Mr. Gunter.

Previous to this the hero of Fort Fisher was all attention, with outstretched neck as though fearful of losing a single word, but when he came to the spoons his head bobbed down, like a terrapin's being jerked into its shell, and an unmistakable titter and smile went over the audience as though spoon reference was very apropos.—Wash. Union.

THE ALABAMA FRAUD.—We read that large numbers of negroes have been fraudulently voted, though not on the registration lists; and that, not content with this, the Republicans all over the State are to be exposed. Such is the tenor of the dispatches from Montgomery. It is also stated that "the President of the Convention proposes to issue certificates of the ratification of the new Constitution and of the election of candidates running under it."

In short, all goes well for the "reconstruction" swindle. There is power and villainy enough in the managers of this business in Alabama to put it through, no matter what the actual vote, and there is no occasion whatever for any pretence of extra reconstruction zeal in Congress. Let this be reserved for the more difficult cases of Virginia and North Carolina.—National Intelligencer.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

MONDAY, Feb. 17, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hudson, of the city.

The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

At the suggestion of Mr. Abbott, the names of absentees, at the time of voting, hereafter, were ordered to be recorded.

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &c.

By Mr. Abbott: An ordinance in reference to freight on the Wilmington and Weldon, and North Carolina Railroads.—Referred.

CALENDAR.

Mr. Rich called up his ordinance, reported by the Committee, establishing an Immigration Agency in New York.

Mr. Rich moved to amend, by inserting, in line 7, after "years," the words "under the direction of the Bureau of Statistics and Immigration."

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, moved to strike out "$2'500" (salary) and insert "$2,000."

Mr. Rich objected to it.

Mr. McDonald then proceeded to advocate his amendment.

Mr. Congleton objected to the whole matter.

Mr. Ashley favored the ordinance, as amended by Mr. Rich, and a salary of $2500 per anum for the agent.

The question recurring upon Mr. McDonald's amendment, he called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained and the vote stood: yeas 64, nays 29.

Mr. McDonald moved to further amend, by striking out, in the 4th line, after the word "State," and inserting "the people shall elect."

Mr. Forkner moved to postpone the matter indefinitely.

Mr. Abbott thought the matter too important to be so lightly dealt with. He wished it to be postponed to a day certain.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, was speaking upon the subject, when the Chair announced that the hour had arrived to consider the viz: The report of the Committee on Corporations, other than Municipal.

The question recurred upon Mr. Tourgee's substitute, offered several days ago, when this report was considered, for sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, to come in as section 4, to wit: "That no Bank of issue shall be established under the authority of this State."

Mr. Jones, of Washington, spoke in opposition to the proposed substitute.

Mr. Welker supported Mr. Tourgee's substitute, and gave his reasons at some length for so doing.

By request of Mr. Rodman, the question was divided, and the Convention decided to strike out; when

Mr. Rodman said if the amendment of Mr. Tourgee prevailed, and the national currency was withdrawn, only the Bank notes of other States would circulate here.—Therefore, he was opposed to the amendment.

The substitute was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Welker moved to strike out section 11, and refer it to the Committee on Municipal Corporations. Lost.

The section, as reported by the Committee, was then adopted.

By consent, Mr. Abbott introduced a bill to revive the charter of the Deep River and Coalfields Railroad, with amendments.—Referred.

Also, Mr. Watts offered an ordinance to prohibit the collection of debts, contracted for purchase of slaves or hire or slaves, or in aid of the rebellion. Ordered to be printed.

The minority report of the Committee on Homesteads was called up, by motion of its Chairman, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, and considered for the second time.

Mr. Jones said that the Committee had concluded to report a bill prospective in its character, as a retrospective bill would amount to repudiation and tend to demoralize good faith between man and man, &c.

Mr. Morton was opposed to the report, and moved to postpone the consideration of it, until to-morrow week.

Mr. Morton amended his motion, at the suggestion of several gentlemen, so as to postpone until Thursday next. Carried.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, called up his ordinance in favor of H. B. Guthrie, Sheriff of Orange county, as he wished it referred to a select Committee, appointed by the Chair. Agreed to.

Mr. Watts called up his ordinance, viz:

"That no Trustee or Mortgagee, in any mortgage or deed in trust made to secure debts contracted prior to May 1st, 1865, shall sell the property conveyed to him by such deed, before the 1st of July, 1868, or the adoption of the Constitution, which this Convention has met to form, whichever may first happen, except by consent of the grantor in such deed, or unless the property conveyed by said deed, (if it be land,) shall bring at the sale the sum at which it was assessed for taxation in the year 1860."

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said that this amounted to nothing more or less than repudiation. He characterized it as being monstrous, and entered into quite a lengthy argument, in opposition to the ordinance.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) made a speech in favor of it, and, as far as repudiation was concerned, scouted the very idea of it. He contended that the ordinance did not contain an iota of it in its provisions.

Mr. May said that they were called a Constitutional Convention, but, upon reviewing the work accomplished, it would seem that it was an improper term. Weeks had rolled around, and nothing done, and almost nothing considered but things of purely a legislative character. It things were to go on in this way, the session would be protracted to an extent unheard of. He thought this subject foreign to the legitimate business of the Convention, and he favored the voting down of all such propositions, until the proper business of this Convention has been accomplished.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, moved to amend as follows: "But the Trustee shall take measures to prevent the waste of the property, and, if in houses and lands, control the rents of the same, so as to apply to the payment of the interest on the debt secured by the trust."

Mr. Watts advocated the measure at some length.

Mr. Jones withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Forkner moved to postpone until the adoption of the Constitution.

Mr. Morton called the yeas and nays, and the roll being called, resulted: yeas 34, nays 28.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, a resolution that this Convention will not entertain any proposition of merely a legislative character, after the hour of 11 o'clock, each day, until the reports of the Committees appointed to report matters looking to the formation of a Constitution shall be considered, and a Constitution formed.

Mr. Jones moved to suspend the rules and adopt at once.

The rules were suspended, when

Mr. Welker moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Jones demanded the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained and resulted: yeas 36, nays 53.

Mr. Watts offered an amendment to the resolution, that "no member shall speak more than 10 minutes upon any question, except upon reports of standing Committees."

Mr. Abbott moved to lay the amendment on the table. Carried.

Mr. Jones then moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Rodman moved to amend, by saying "except when there is no other business before the Convention."

The yeas and nays were called upon this amendment, and the vote stood: yeas 53, nays 47.

The resolution, as amended, was adopted.

By consent, Mr. Abbott introduced the following resolution:

"That the contingent expenses of this Convention, including those for labor, be not paid until audited by the Committee on contingent expenses and vouched for by the President and Secretary."

The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, May by permission, an ordinance concerning the qualification of widows in administering on estates. Lies over.

The Chair announced the following Committee on the case of H. R. Guthrie, Sheriff of Orange, viz: Messrs. McDonald, of Chatham, King, of Lenoir, McCubbins, Nicholson and Smith.

On motion, the House adjourned until 7½ o'clock this evening.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1868.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee are respectfully requested to meet in this City, on Friday, the 28th. inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is much desired. By order of the CHAIRMAN.

Raleigh, Feb. 15th., 1868.

COUNTY CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

The Conservative meeting announced for 1 o'clock, on yesterday, at the Court House, was necessarily postponed, on account of the Court's remaining in session until a late hour of the afternoon.

We are requested to state that it will be held at 1 o'clock, to day, and it is hoped that the Court, as usual on such occasions, will take a short recess, in order to allow the citizens to occupy the Court House.

WAKE COUNTY COURT.—This Tribunal is in session the present week. On yesterday, C. B. Root, E-q., of this City, was elected Chairman of the Court for the ensuing year, vice W. H. High, Esq., resigned.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.—The order discontinuing the Freedmen's Bureau in Maryland, Tennessee and Kentucky went into effect on Saturday. Happy States!—so far.

ACCEPTABLE PRESENT.—We thank our friend Capt. J. B. Hunter, of Portsmouth, for two pairs of canvass back ducks,—a pair for each Editor. Captain H. is as liberal as he is enterprising and energetic.—That is saying a great deal.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, Pastor of the Baptist Church in this City, delivered on Sabbath evening last, at the request of the Young Men's Christian Association, a Sermon to Young Men.

The large and handsome auditory was filled to its utmost capacity, and the most profound attention was paid by the vast concourse. The text was in Paul's defence of himself, before the Corinthians, 2nd. Epistle, 5th. Chapter and 14th. verse, "For the Love of Christ constraineth us." The sermon was chaste and elegant in style, forcible and vigorous in thought, and delivered with great earnestness and deep solemnity. The reverend speaker's delineation of the strength of Christ's love, as compared with any exhibitions of human devotion; of its legitimate result, as illustrated in the life of the great Apostle; and of its service, as a motive for young men, was well drawn and clearly presented. His concluding appeal to young men, (with an exceedingly appropriate and eloquent allusion to the devotion of the honored dead, who had fallen in defence of their country's liberty,) was tender, solemn and powerful.

This is the first of a series of sermons to be delivered to young men, at the request of the Young Men's Christian Association, by the different Pastors and Ministers of the City. We were glad to notice the seal of approval in the willing service of ministers of different denominations and the large and attentive congregation.

X. P. G.—The Wilmington Post and New bern Republican, both edited by Yankee Radicals, hoist the name of the X. P. G. as the Radical candidate for Governor. Delighted to see it.

RUMOR.—It is rumored that a select caucus was held at the office of the "black and tan" paper, in this city, on last Saturday night week, at which were present the X. P. G., Col. Dewease, Col. Rodman, McDonald, of Chatham, Jim Harris, (negro,) and probably others. The programme, as arranged, is said to have been that Col. Rodman shall be the Radical candidate for Governor, and Jim Harris (negro) for Lieutenant Governor. The X. P. G. is to go to the Senate, if; and McDonald and Dewease both wish to be candidates for Congress. Their conflicting claims are not yet reconciled.

CHATHAM.—The following extract from a private letter to the Editors conveys cheering intelligence from this County:

"I am gratified to believe that the white spirit in this County is fully roused. We had a fine meeting, in the Court House, on Tuesday last. Committees were appointed to canvass every District. The members of the Leagues (whites) are pouring out, declaring their purpose to go, in this contest of races, with their own color."

The same letter says:

"I hear we have a negro candidate in this Militia district for the position of Captain in the Militia. The whites don't like the prospect of having to answer before negro Courts Martial."

WILMINGTON JOURNAL.—This staunch and able Conservative paper has entered upon the twenty fourth year of its existence. Long may it continue to flourish! We extend to the worthy Editors our warmest congratulations upon the evidences of success and popularity, which the Journal exhibits.

MR. MACRAE'S READINGS.—Pleasanter evenings have not been spent in this community, for years, than have been afforded by Mr. Macrae's two readings, in the Senate Chamber, on Saturday night, and at Tucker Hall, last night. On both occasions, there were present select and appreciative audiences, which were charmed and delighted.

Mr. Macrae's elocution is really of a splendid order. With a voice of remarkable richness and compass, he has it under perfect control,—varying it, to suit the expression of his reading, from the most sonorous utterances to the most winning and gentle modulations. But even a greater attraction is his wonderful facial adaptability and eloquence. We have never seen a man who could more successfully pourtray, by the countenance, sentiment, feeling and passion,—whether of the tragic, fierce, tender or humorous character. Alternately, he had his auditory affected to tears, moved to indignation and overwhelmed with mirth.

His specimens of "After-Dinner Orators" were rendered in a manner that was irresistibly comic, while the sad and touching history of "Little Tiz" was almost equal in pathos to Dickens' "Little Nell." "Leap Year Wooing" kept the house in roars of laughter by its naturalness and humor, and was given with a vivacity and drollery that could not have been excelled.

Mr. Macrae deserves the thanks of the community, not only for the gratification he has afforded us, but for the generous donation of the entire proceeds of his entertainments to the charitable objects of the Young Men's Christian Association. As we have heretofore stated, his sole object, in visiting the South, is to acquaint himself with its people, with a view, probably, to a book from his graphic pen. We commend him, wherever he may go, to the courtesies of our people.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 P. M.

House.—Bingham introduced the following, which was referred to the Reconstruction Committee:

"Whereas, A large majority of the votes given at an election held on the 5th day of February, 1868, were for the Constitution presented by the Convention of the people of the State of Alabama; and whereas, certain combinations of citizens, within said State, refused to vote, with intent thereby to defeat the efforts of the friends of the Union to restore the said State to its proper relation to the Union; therefore

Be it enacted, &c., That the Legislature, elected under the new Constitution of Alabama, be convened at the Capital of said State as soon as practicable, by order of the United States Military Commander, within said State of Alabama, and that, upon the ratification by the said Legislature, of the 14th article of amendments to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the 39th Congress, and the establishment by law of impartial suffrage within said State, as authorized by said Constitution of Alabama, the said State shall be admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, in accordance with the laws of the United States."

The Appropriation bill was considered, and after the failure of efforts to strike out the appropriations for several South American Missions, it passed.

One hundred New Jersey negroes asked for $100, each, to carry them to Liberia.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17, P. M.

Gen. Steedman has resigned the New Orleans Internal Collectorship, to take effect the 15th of May.

Sumner presented a petition from citizens of Massachusetts, praying the abolition of the Presidential office, as dangerous to the Republic.

Trumbull's bill, introduced to-day, defining the Jurisdiction of the Courts of the United States, is, in effect, as follows:

All Courts of the United States shall be bound by the acts of Congress on political questions; and that it rests with Congress to determine what government is the established one in any State; and it is declared that no civil State governments exist in the excluded states of the South, and no so-called civil government shall be recognized by either the Executive or Judicial power of the U. S., until Congress shall so provide, or until such State is represented in the Congress of the U. S.

The Reconstruction acts are declared political in their character, the propriety or validity of which no Judicial tribunal is competent to question; and the Supreme Court of the U. S. is hereby prohibited from taking Jurisdiction of any case growing out of the execution of said acts, in either of the said States, until such State shall be represented, etc. And such cases now pending before that Court shall be dismissed, and all acts authorizing any appeal, writ of error, habeas corpus, or other proceedings, to bring before said Court, for review, any case, civil or criminal, arising out of the execution of said Reconstruction acts, are hereby repealed.

Senator Sherman says the General will not accept either the Brevet appointment or the command of the new Department, and if the President declines to relieve him from the latter, he will promptly tender his resignation.

SERGEANT BATES.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 17, P. M.

Sergeant Bates, carrying the U. S. flag, reached this city to-day. He was met by large numbers of citizens and carriages, decorated by U. S flags, with a band of music. Three thousand people turned out to hear the welcoming speeches and to welcome him. The old flag was enthusiastically cheered. Hundreds of ladies from windows, balconies and the verandahs on the principal streets, waved their handkerchiefs to him, as he marched along. He was escorted to one of the leading Hotels, and is the guest of the City as long as he remains. All the speakers and Marshals were Confederate soldiers.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

Raleigh Correspondence of Wilmington Journal.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 12, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—Being detained for a day or so in this just now somewhat fashionable metropolis, I am under the necessity of whiling away an hour of ennui, by writing you a short epistle.

There are two very different bodies in session at the Capitol; one the Supreme Court in a secluded room; the other the Nondescript Assembly sitting in the Commons Hall; one the representative of the lestrairg and dignity of the State, and the expounder of her laws; the other having for its office the destruction of those laws and those fundamental principles, which so long secured for her people happiness at home and respect abroad. The one, in the opinions it promulgates, in the recollections it inspires, in the discussions it elicits, in the character of its members, and of the counsel who assist in its deliberations, stirring with pride the heart of every true son of the State, and affording a retreat where, for a while, may be forgotten the degradation to which we seem to be destined. The other engaged in destroying almost every trace of those laws which have grown out of the habits and wants of our people, and have become almost a part of themselves, and proposing to erect on this ruin a Constitution and a code which may ensure the appointment to the places of honor, trust and profit, among us, of Yankee adventurers and emancipated slaves. Well, in deed, might a descendant of our good old stock exclaim to me, on looking in on this latter body: "How long, Oh! Lord—how long?"

Curiosity led me to-day to the Commons Hall; when I reached there a member was discussing earnestly and gesticulating violently. I learned that he had been but a short time removed from the back woods of one of the Northern States, and yet he had the unblushing effrontery to pretend to represent, in his person, a portion of the people of our good Old State. In all probability a fair expression of opinion of the whites in the county he hails from would not deem him worthy of the very lowest office within their gift. A very short survey of the scene soon satisfied me that the ruling spirits were Yankees, whose only recommendation seems to be that they came in at the tail end of a devastating army, whose excesses will long remain a blot on the civilization of the day, and negroes, very recently slaves, who, from the force of habit, must even now take off their hats to a white man. Looking at the motley aspect before me, and contrasting the appearance of the sable delegates with that of their white associates, I bethought myself of "apples of gold in vases of silver," but as this did not seem to be appropriate in color, I concluded that the appearance of the whole might be compared to diamonds of jet in settings of pearl. Some men I saw there who had heretofore gained some reputation, and who seemed to be "cheek by jowl" with the blackest Radicals of the body. I turned off involuntarily, repeating to myself the old adage, "It we lie down with the dogs we must rise up with fleas."

General Canby visited the body of which I speak, to-day—even its own members can not call it "a Convention of the people of North Carolina." General Canby was present by invitation, and was accompanied by three members of his staff, I presume. He occupied a position on the right of the President, and sat, if I may use the expression, with the "precision" of a soldier, looking neither to the right hand nor to the left, but straight ahead, as if, indeed, peering into futurity—a wise man he, if he can tell what the womb of time will bring forth. The attitude of the President was somewhat in contrast with that of the General—swaying to and fro in his chair as if musing over a lullaby.

Surely the audience that honored the occasion with its presence must have been highly gratifying to all good radicals; on the floor, of course, only the privileged, in the lobbies "nothing but nigger everywhere;" in one corner a knot of whites, looking for all the world as if they were intruders. I concluded that I must have a better view of the whole spectacle, and so I hastened up to the gallery, where I was met by a placard on the door, "none but ladies and their attendants admitted here." So, thought I, my progress is barred, but I'll venture a peep at any rate. I had the temerity to open the door, and was received most odoriferously. The gallery was indeed crowded with "ladies of sable hue" and their dusky lords and lavers in the front seats; in the back seats, all staring at the brilliant uniforms and edified, no doubt, by the eloquent gentleman on the floor, who seemed determined to record his name on "de archives of gravity." If one lady of Raleigh, if even one Northern lady sojourning here, was present during the short time I remained, I did not discover her. The ladies of Raleigh, God bless them! When I recall their attentions to the "poor boys in gray," particularly to one who died here some six months after Gen. Johnston surrender; how they nursed him; how they supplied a mother's and sister's places; how affectionately they followed him to the grave and spread flowers upon his bier, I cannot help asking blessings on their heads. That they should be absent on such an occasion was proper and becoming, under the circumstances, but why were the Northern ladies sojourning in Raleigh absent? The answer is, they cannot be present without mingling among the negroes who had congregated everywhere, and pride of caste compelled them to remain away.

No body or set of men ever assembled to make laws for a people so little in sympathy with those they profess to represent, and, I may add, that no body ever assembled on the Continent of America so wholly unfitted, by education and training, to form a Constitution, or meet the exigency which has called them together. Oh! I beg pardon; they are, I presume, equal to similar bodies, now, or recently, in session in the Southern States. Of course, there are some men of ability among them. The little band of Conservatives would, by their acknowledged talents, do honor to any assembly. Rodman, it must be admitted, is an excellent lawyer; in fact, he has more brains than all the Radicals in the House, but, it is needless to say, that, hereafter, with the Radicals he must sink or swim.

It was my purpose to have commented on some of the Acts already passed by this body, and others which they intend to pass, but I will not trespass further on your indulgence.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 15th. day of May, 186.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1865, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine, and it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Order No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired on the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or the first Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judge may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [illegible] tax of such persons liable to the same, as to their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
